

Fire Rages on New York Water Front

WEEHAWKEN, N.J. (AP) — A general alarm fire raged over half a mile of the Hudson River waterfront today. Fire department officials said the blaze caused more than a million dollars damage.

The fire apparently started at the New York Central Railroad abandoned 42nd St. ferry, officials said. The first alarm was received at 3:15 a.m.

Forty-five minutes later, the huge ferry terminal, adjoining docks, and several nearby freight sheds and boxcars had been reduced to a glowing pile of crackling timber. Flames could be seen from the center of Manhattan on the New York side of the river.

The terminal building covered almost a full city block. It was a one-story, shed-type frame building. It had been abandoned about four years ago, when the New York Central eliminated passenger service on that line.

Four hundred firemen from 12 departments in Hudson and Bergen counties were joined by fireboats from New York City and the Coast Guard in fighting to contain the blaze. It burned for three hours before being brought under control.

During the fire, six trucks were recalled to West New York, N.J., just north of Weehawken, where a fire destroyed three piers at an estimated $1-million loss Friday night.

Light but steady drizzle — not heavy enough to help quench the flames — hampered the firemen at the terminal.

James Woodcock, 42, received minor burns on his arms and hands while he was assisting firemen.

Twelve persons were injured at the fire in West New York Friday, none seriously.

Ralph Cinque, 19, has been missing since the blaze. Police said he leaped into the river when he was threatened by flames.

The West New York fire razed three piers, a boat repair yard, two buildings and a dozen barges.

3 Generations Die in Accident

BUHL, Idaho (AP) — A traffic accident Sunday wiped out five members of three generations of a southern Idaho family.

Six persons were killed in the two-car crash at a country road intersection.

Judith Anderson, 10, of Buhl, who died of injuries, was alone in one car.

Driving the other car was Ivan Koller, 26, of nearby Filer. He was critically hurt.

His wife Betty, 22, and their son, Edward, 4 months, were killed. So was Ivan's brother, Michael, 21, and their parents, Albert L. and Delma G. Kistler, both about 50, of Buhl. All lived at Filer.

Investigation of Girl's Suitor Is a Costly But Usually Futile Business

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Dollared daddies, suspicious of debonaire lads wooing their daughters, often hire a "character detective."

The family of a wealthy widow may ask for a Bishop's report about some handsome young man without visible means of support who is busily sweeping their dear relative off her feet.

"Save your money," William H. Chiariello tells them every time. In 80 per cent of the cases the men in question have perfect pasts. And when pasts are imperfect, ladies in love won't listen anyway.

Founded by the late Willie Bishop, the 6 year old company was brought from Chicago to New York in 1955. New York's marriage to person.

But invariably some prosperous client has personal problems concerning somebody's romance. And despite the handsome president's warnings, the client insists on an investigation.

Whether the ladies learn or not the strange shenanigans of cupid turned up by the 100-man organization have taught Chiariello that: Sex, not money, is the root of most of the evil. Love is blind. And foolish. And the world is full of bored husbands leading double lives.

"We're not crystal ball gabers," Chiariello says.

Showdown in Tunisia Puts 'S. on Spot

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

The U.N. General Assembly's special session on the French-Tunisian dispute over Bizerte, opening today, poses a new test of the Kennedy administration's professed anti-colonial policy.

Some 25 African and Asian countries planned to submit a resolution calling on France to withdraw troops occupying the city of Bizerte. The resolution also calls on France and Tunisia to open negotiations immediately on the withdrawal of all French forces from Tunisian territory.

Delegates from Asian, African or neutralist nations waited to see if the United States would vote for the resolution or if it would abstain as it did on similar proposals before the Security Council July 29.

Informed sources said there was a possibility the United States would vote for the resolution, but many diplomats believed it would abstain. One African States supported Tunisia, it could expect little support from the anti-colonialist countries if it should bring the Berlin crisis before the United Nations.

There was some belief the United States abstained on the Security Council vote because it thought then it could get the French to negotiate with the Tunisians. Chief U.S. delegate Adlai E. Stevenson now apparently has abandoned this hope, and Tunisia's backers feel that the United States — which Stevenson described as the "oldest anti-colonial power" — should join in the French even though France is one of the United States' most important European allies.

The French government has refused to discuss a schedule of withdrawal from the big Bizerte naval and air base, claiming that Tunisia is trying to hold a gun to its head. The French indicated they would boycott the General Assembly session.

The resolution prepared for introduction in the General Assembly says the presence of French forces in Tunisia against Tunisia's will violates the sovereignty of the former French protectorate and endangers international peace. It also calls on the French to obey the Security Council's July 22 resolution by pulling their forces back into the naval base.

When Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba ordered a blockade of the base to pressure the French into negotiating a withdrawal schedule, French forces seized control of the adjoining city of Bizerte and occupied a considerable perimeter around it.

Opera Still Talking on Union Issue

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg will be briefed for the second time in as many days today on the Metropolitan Opera Association's stand on a labor dispute which has led to cancellation of the Met's 1961-62 season.

Goldberg will meet here with Anthony A. Bliss, president of the Met, who came to Denver from his Montana ranch.

The two talked for more than an hour Sunday about a dispute over wages involving the Met and Local 002 of the Musicians Union.

A spokesman for the labor secretary said Goldberg has a meeting scheduled Tuesday with Alfred J. Manuti, president of the union local, who will brief Goldberg on the union's position.

Twice in recent weeks opera officials have announced flatly that the winter season, scheduled to begin in October, has been canceled.

The musicians are asking a wage increase from $170 a week to $248. The Met termed the demand exorbitant, and countered with an offer of $3 a week raises in each of the next two seasons, plus fringe benefits it said would bring the total increase to 14 per cent.

Snake Held to Be Deadly Weapon

CABOT, Ark. (AP) — City Marshall T. O. Shirley locked up a 50-year-old man for drunkenness and carrying a concealed weapon. The weapon was a 3½-foot rattlesnake Shirley found tucked inside the man's shirt. The snake slithered out as Shirley was closing the cell door, and the officer grabbed a stick and killed it.

New Size Car Seen in Ford Line

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. showed off a new middle-sized series and a two-seat Thunderbird today as it previewed its 1962 models to the press.

Ford said the average life of its 33 models offered in 1962 is expected to be at least 100,000 miles greater than that of present models.

It said the new Fords are designed to require normal maintenance only twice a year for the average 12,000-mile-a-year driver.

Ford described the new two-seat Thunderbird as a sports roadster. The car has two individual "bucket" seats.

The middle-sized series is a 115-inch wheelbase Fairlane line, in between Ford's compact (109.5-inch) Falcon and its standard (119-inch) Ford.

Ford claims the car offers "the economy of the compact cars, but is larger and offers all the optional equipment available on the Galaxie (Ford's standard series).

All its line—Galaxie, Thunderbird and Falcon—have been restyled extensively, Ford said.

Donald N. Frey, division product planning manager, said "Twice-a-year maintenance is a reality" on the 1962 model, with chassis and wheel bearing lubrication, fuel filter replacement, and engine coolant change recommended only every 30,000 miles and oil changes and minor lubrications only every 6,000 miles.

N. Y. School Scandal Up to Assembly

By ROBERT T. GRAY
ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller called upon a special session of the New York Legislature today to declare a state of emergency in the scandal-ridden school system of New York City.

The Republican-controlled legislature was ready to approve the GOP governor's recommendations for a series of sweeping reforms. Minority Democrats balked at some details.

The New York City administration is Democratic-controlled.

Rockefeller, in a message prepared for the special session, told the lawmakers: "The crisis in New York City's public schools stems from the reluctance of city leadership to assume its responsibilities and take decisive action."

The New York City school system, which includes a million pupils, 40,000 teachers, 800 schools and an annual operating budget of $650 million, has been beset by charges of graft and corruption in building programs, hazardous conditions in present schools and inefficient administration.

Rockefeller asked the legislature to:

1. Proclaim a state of emergency in the giant school system throughout the next school year.

2. Authorize Mayor Robert F. Wagner to appoint a new, nine-member school board from a select list of 18 nominees to be submitted by a panel of educators and other community leaders.

3. Require the new board to make periodic reports of what it does to eliminate corruption and otherwise improve conditions in the system.

Wagner has agreed to accept the legislation proposed by the State Education Department.

The Democratic minority while agreeing there was a need for a new school board, argued that it should not be appointed until the mayor chosen at the Nov. 7 election takes office. They also held the board should be salaried.

Practically all Democrats in the legislature are from New York City. Most of those minority members are supporting State Comptroller Arthur Levitt against Wagner in a primary fight for the Democratic nomination for mayor.

Wagner, involved in a rugged battle for re-election, has broken with the regular Democratic city organization, which is supporting Levitt in the party primary Sept. 7.

Rockefeller is backing State Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz, Republican in the mayoral fight.

Reds Tighten Grip, British Guard Road

By CARL HARTMAN
BERLIN (AP) — Communists tightened their barricades around West Berlin a bit more today in the wake of Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's visit. British troops turned out to keep watch on one wire-stringing job at the zonal border.

British headquarters was especially interested in Red operations at Staaken. A main highway from West Berlin heads across Communist-ruled east Germany near Staaken to Hamburg West Germany. About two miles away is a small grass airfield occasionally used by Soviet and East German air forces.

A company of British infantrymen and four tanks deployed along a two-mile front there. Maj. Gen. Sir Ithorn Delcombe, the British commandant, went out for a personal look at the activity of the workers and their guards, Red police and militiamen, who labored in a drizzling rain. Six Red armored personnel carriers were stationed behind the workers.

Delcombe told reporters he believed the Communists "are strengthening their wire to prevent further escapes"—as they have been doing along the city border between East and West Berlin.

British officers said the Communists are building an extra barbed wire fence about six feet behind one that had been there for years and apparently intended to fill the gap with coils of barbed wire.

A battalion commander, Lt. Col. Malcolm Sherman, said the British infantrymen and tanks were brought out after reports were received that several hundred Communist militiamen and the personnel carrier had been observed along the border.

This is the first time such a deployment of Western troops had been announced publicly in the current crisis. However, British soldiers turned out as a precaution during German rioting at the Brandenburg Gate last week.

Within the city, moving van crews guarded by Communist troops and police moved East Berlin families from their homes on Harzerstrasse, a street fronting on the American sector of Berlin.

Johnson left after a 36-hour visit that lifted the will of the 2½ million West Berliners to resist Communist pressures. He quieted fears that they might be forsaken. The reaction was summed up by a Berlin taxi driver:

"We know now that we won't be forgotten. The United States will not let us down."

Graham Has Program to Solve Berlin

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham has suggested to President Kennedy a three-point program for Berlin which he says would wake up the American people, frighten their enemies and encourage those living under communism.

The evangelist put forth the program Sunday at the start of a month-long Greater Philadelphia Crusade at Convention Hall. Graham said the president should:

"First, call for a United Nations General Assembly meeting to find out why the refugees are fleeing East Germany."

"Secondly, the President should again spell out in a speech in no uncertain terms that we will not retreat, compromise or appease anywhere in the world—that from now on we are starting a peaceful counter-offensive to roll communism back in Eastern Europe."

"Third, the President should call a day of prayer as a time of petition to God to intervene in the world situation, that we might have the courage to do His will for a just peace. A major part of our praying would be for the people under communism."

Graham said that as a minister, he does not usually discuss political situations but, "I feel it is time for the preacher to speak out."

He said, "Our help must come from God. If we depend upon military power alone, we're finished."

Dr. Graham, opening his 116th crusade and his 35th major one in this country, spoke to a capacity crowd of 15,000 in Convention Hall after delivering a brief message from a second-story window to hundreds who stood in the rain in the street.

Fire Threatens Malvern Paper

MALVERN, Ark. (AP) — Fire heavily damaged the Quality Office Supplies building next door to the Malvern Daily Record Saturday. Mrs. Frances Beerstecher, editor of the newspaper and owner of the supply store, said the fire apparently started in the engraving department and climbed into the attic. The newspaper office was not damaged. There was no estimate of damage.

Auto Union Gives Notice to Chrysler

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers today served notice of termination of its contract with Chrysler Corp.

The company was expected to take the same action immediately. Under terms of the UAW-Chrysler agreement, today was the last day for termination notice.

"We feel the notice is necessitated by the fact that we have made absolutely no progress at the bargaining table," Norman Matthews, read of the UAW's Chrysler manager of labor relations.

Johnson Home to Report to President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson brought back to President Kennedy today a report that the free world's bonds have been strengthened by his 36-hour visit to West Berlin.

The presidential jet touched down at nearby Andrews Air Force Base after a 7 hour, 45 minute flight.

The vice president's plane landed on a mist shrouded runway. Despite the bad weather and the arduous and dramatic weekend journey, Johnson seemed in good spirits.

Johnson had flown earlier from Berlin to Shannon, Ireland, where a replacement of a cracked window glass in the military jetliner delayed him more than an hour this morning.

The vice president was met at the airport with a minimum of fanfare by a handful of official greeters. They included House Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., House Majority Leader John W. McCormack, D-Mass., Undersecretary of State George W. Ball and West German Ambassador Wilhelm Grewe.

Johnson was scheduled to report to the White house after Kennedy returns late this afternoon from his Hyannis Port Mass., summer home.

In an arrival statement read beside his plane, Johnson said he had returned from his conferences with top German officials convinced that ties between United States, West Berlin and West Germany "already very strong, have been made even stronger at more enduring."

The vice president who met with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt and other West German officials praised what he termed the "distinction and responsibility of free German leadership."

Johnson labeled his reception, and that of the 1,500 U.S. reinforcements dispatched to Berlin over the week end as "heart-warming."

He expressed belief he succeeded in removing "anxiety between friends."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson arrived back in the nation's capital today to report to President Kennedy on his 36-hour successful mission to West Berlin.

Johnson's jet plane landed at Andrews Air Force Base at 11:04 a.m. EDT.

Later in the day, the vice president will give Kennedy a detailed report of his successful efforts to lift the spirits of 2.5 million West Berliners.

West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt who had demanded "political ac visit was "the greatest help we could get at this moment."

Before the vice president left,
a fresh battle group of 1,500 American troops rolled in to strengthen his repeated pledge that the United States will stand firm with West Berlin and the Communist-encircled city "can never be bullied into the surren

The new arrivals brought the U.S., British and French garrisons in West Berlin to a total of 12, 000 troops.

The Moscow press called John son's visit "provocative" and de cried the dispatch of the Ameri

110 miles of Communist territory to get here from West Germany.

Over the weekend in what John son called "one of America's finest hours," the fears of war sub sided noticeably and the pros pects of negotiations with the So viets grew both in Berlin and Washington.

Mayor Brandt, who said his dis cussions with Johnson went "far beyond the Berlin issue," said there will be no war and predict ed East-West talks late in the fall.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk told a U.S. television audi ence he did not expect the Soviet threats to West Berlin to lead to war.

"We do expect negotiations to take place—negotiations will oc cur," Rusk said. He said he did not yet know how, when or where —but he did not rule out the pros pect of a summit meeting after "full preparation."

A West German government press officer in Bonn Sunday cir culated a report that the East German Communists may close the Helmstedt-Berlin highway, the sole route for allied military road traffic. Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's chief spokesman in Berlin quickly toned down the re port by calling it "merely a rum or."

Soviets manning the Helmstedt border checkpoint Sunday showed no inclination to hamper the Ber lin-bound convoy of 1,500 men of the 8th Infantry Division. It was the biggest mass movement of American troops to West Berlin
since the war.

The Soviets took an identity check and head-count—as they have a right to do under Big Four agreements on Berlin—but they seemed as anxious as the Ameri cans to see that the operation went off without a hitch.

Secretary Rusk said in Wash ington any Communist inter ference with the physical access to Berlin would "be a very serious matter indeed."

Swim Meet

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ten world records were headed for the books today as some 400 swimmers and divers scattered toward home.

Of 14 swimming events in the annual men's national AAU out three-day meet ended Sunday.

The American record came in Sunday's highlight — the final clash of the season between Ja

Australian star, Murray Rose.

As the two 22-year-olds battled, Yamanaka finally achieved some thing he had failed to do in two Olympic games: defeat Rose in the 400 meters.

Yamanaka won in 4:17.5 to Rose's 4:17.8 — both better than the American mark of 4:19.2 Alan Somers, who held that previous

During the meet the Indianapo lis Athletic Club collected five world marks and its fifth straight team championship with 125½ points.

Powerhouse of the Hosier team was Chet Jastrenski, who laid claim Sunday to the world 100-meter breaststroke mark with a time of 1:07.6. It eclipsed the re cognized time of 1:11.5 set by Rus sia's W. Minaschkin in 1957.

Jastrenski previously put in a claim for the 200-meter breast stroke record and emerged as the outstanding swimmer of the meet with 9 points.

Tom Stock, a sophomore at In diana University and a swimmer for the Indianapolis A.C., led off the afternoon finals with a world record of 2:11.6 in the 200-meter backstroke. It erased his own world mark of 2:16.0.

Fred Schmidt, 17-year-old Indi ana-bound athlete from Wilmette, Ill., followed with 58.6 in the 100-meter butterfly, bettering the world mark of 58.7 held by Los Angeles' Lance Larson.

The day wound up with the In dianapolis "A" medley relay team breaking the world 400-meter mark of 4:05.4 with a time of 4:03.0.

The new championship team:
Stock, Jastrenski, Larry Schulhel and Pete Sintz. The former rec ord was set by Frank McKinney, Mike Troy, Sintz and Jeff Farrell in the 1960 Rome Olympics.

The platform diving cham pionship was won by Don Harper of the WBNSTV swim team of Co lumbus, Ohio, with 482.40 points.

Jews Condemn Intermarriage

STANISHT, Pa. (AP)—Jewish teen-agers were told Sunday that interfaith marriages threaten the survival of Judaism and are a peril to personal happiness.

A report to the 38th annual con ference of the Aleph Zadik Aleph —boys' division of B'nai Brith—said:

"Both Christian and Jewish clergymen have consistently op posed such marriages not because they thought their religious su perior, but because they know that marriage at best has many challenges. Where there is reli gious difference there is an add ed and serious hurdle."

Who Says This Is a Man's World?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE
Dear Helen: I just read a letter in your column from a lonely widow. Your encouragement for her to go on with life spurs me to write you.
My husband died six years ago. I'm not really lonely. Our friends have been wonderful and, after 23 years at home, I'm active again in the business world. However, whenever a holiday comes around and everybody pairs off at par ties, I feel the odd one. There are several widowers in my office. Would they consider it strange if I invited one to escort me to a party? I shudder at the thought of taking the aggressive. Why does convention make such things easier for men? Should I sit home twiddling my thumbs, continue to go solo, or tackle a widower and if so, what is the best approach?
—Mrs. R.
Dear Mrs. R.: To all intents and purposes, it is a man's world for the simple reason that the male is the aggressor. But there's nothing to prevent a woman encouraging a man to take the initiative.
Turn your charm on the widowers. Defer to them. Ask their advice. Praise their business acumen. Let them open windows, close doors and run errands for you. Make them feel needed! Entertain informally at home; invite old friends and one of the widowers. Make a habit of these casual get-togethers. Never ask the same widower twice.
Before the month's out they'll all be knocking each other down in an effort to win your favor. At any rate the way will be paved to invite the most eligible to the next holiday party, without sending the aggressor!

Dear Helen: Mine is a problem which many girls in their teens about a sister-in-law who needles my brother by saying I talk about her? I don't. He tells my mother, who has a bad heart. By the time all this gets back to me, you'd think I had shot someone. I tried to be sweet to this sister-in-law but all the thanks I got was a knife in my back. Result: at 19, I'm a nervous wreck. Tell me what to do. —DDC.
Dear DDC: Talk turkey to that brother. He is at fault for believing your sister-in-law. The best answer to her sideswipes is cool-as-a-cucumber courtesy. Be studiously polite when you meet but don't go out of your way to meet her.
Dear Helen: What would you do face. I am 16 and in love with a man of 25. My family urge me to date boys my own age. I feel old enough to know what I want. Do you agree? -F.

Dear F.: No, I do not agree. At 16, you lack the experience to form a basis of comparison. The man you love at this age is rarely the type you would choose later in life, unless you're a mighty sophisticated gal. Your parents are right. Wait until you are at least 18.

Osceola in 3rd Round at Wichita

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) - The Osceola, Ark., Indians advanced to the third round of the national non-pro baseball tournament Sunday night with a 7-3 victory over Anniston, Ala.

Solo home runs by Dean Wagner and Joe Bratcher and a two-run double by Bill Looney paced the Indian attack.

The Alabama champions took a 2-0 lead in the fourth on singles by Hank O'Neal, Dabbs Ernest and Gerry Gann and, an infield out.

Des Moines eliminated Denver, 2-1, from the double elimination tournament in the first game of the afternoon. Tom George allowed Denver only three hits. He walked three and struck out four.

Beyerley Is Again Champ of Hope Club

Home Beyerley, the 1961 Hope Country Club Golf Champion, made it two in a row Saturday by defeating the always tough Jim Smith.

It was a battle all the way. Smith won the first two holes as Beyerley was having trouble finding the range, but at the end of the first nine, Beyerley had closed the gap and led by one hole. Smith won the 10th, but Beyerley won the 11th. Smith ran in a 25-foot putt to split 12 and 13.

Beyerley applied the pressure when he sank a 20 foot eagle putt on the 14 to go 2 up. They split 15. On 16 Smith hit his approach seven feet from the hole while Beyerley was left with a downhill, curving 25 foot putt. He holed the difficult putt and Smith, visibly shaken by the putt, missed the hole to end the match.

Beyerley fired a 31 on the back nine to go with his front nine 35 for a two under par 66.

Henny Fenwick edged Charles Carver 1 up to win the championship flight consolation.

In the first flight, Bill Hairr, (the Cinderella Kid), defeated Mitch LaGrone, 3 and 2.

Mickey Baber defeated Sammy Strong 1 up in the second flight. Royce Smith ousted Newt Pentecost 3 and 2 in the consolation round.

In the third flight, E. J. Whitman edged David Waddie 1 up in a battle which was close all the way.

Frank Coleman nosed out Fred Ellis 1 up in the fourth flight.

Charles Carver, who fired three under par 65 in the qualifying round won the medalist trophy.

Winners in each flight received $10 in golf merchandise, runners up received $6 and consolation winners received $4 in merchandise.

Mantle and Maris Each Belt Homers

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees, both challenging Babe Ruth's major league home run record of 60 set in 1927, each hit for the distance in the first game of a doubleheader against the Indians Sunday.

Maris' was his 49th and put him 10 games ahead of Ruth's pace. Mantle now has 46 and is 8 games ahead of Ruth.

The Yankees swept the doubleheader, 6-0 and 5-2. Both home runs came off Cleveland right-hander Jim Perry.

Yank Power Hides Tiger Bid for Flag

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The home run heroics of Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle and the almost monotonous winning ways of the New York Yankees have overshadowed the courageous effort of the Detroit Tigers and the spectacular hitting of their new star first baseman, Norm Cash.

Maris clouted his 49th home run Sunday and Mantle walloped No. 46 as the M and M boys kept 10 and 8 games, respectively, ahead of Babe Ruth's record 60-home pace of 1927. The Yankees went on to sweep a doubleheader from Cleveland 6-0 and 5-2 to protect their three game bulge over Detroit.

Undismayed, the Tigers took a doubleheader from Boston 6-1 and 7-6. They were the Tigers' sixth and seventh victories in the last 10 games.

Red Sox pitchers were able to retire Cash only once as he rapped three hits in each game, drove in four runs, slammed his 31st home run and boosted his league-leading average to .364.

Chicago's White Sox thrashed Kansas City 5-3 and 7-0 to move into a fourth-place tie with Cleveland. Third place Baltimore, 11 games off the pace, downed Washington 9-3 in the first game of a scheduled doubleheader. The second game was postponed until today because of rain. Minnesota outslugged Los Angeles 9-7.

In the National League, St. Louis snapped league-leading Cincinnati's victory string at six with a 7-4 triumph. San Francisco defeated Los Angeles 11-8 for a sweep of the three-game set. Philadelphia ended its record losing streak at 23 with a 7-4 triumph over Milwaukee after the Braves had won the opener 5-2. Chicago's Cubs took a 1-0 decision over Pittsburgh in 11 innings.

The Yankees received superb pitching from young right-handers Ralph Terry and Reio Sheldon. Terry hurled a four-hitter in the opener for his 10th victory in 11 decisions. Sheldon yielded eight hits in the nightcap for a 9-3 record.

Mantle had a field day before a Cleveland season record crowd of 56,307. In addition to his three-run homer the first time at bat, he had three singles and three walks. He drove in six runs in the two games and made to spectacular catches in center field.

Frank Lary, second in victories only to New York's Whitey Ford, won his 18th with a seven-hitter in Detroit's first game triumph. Relief pitcher Terry Fox was the second game winner, getting his fourth triumph when pinch hitter Bubba Morton singled home the tying and winning runs in the eighth.

Juan Pizarro hurled a three-hit shutout over the Athletics for his ninth White Sox victory. Al Smith led the 11 hit attack against loser Art Dittmar and company with a double and triple. Two errors by third baseman Ossie Virgil in the sixth inning of the opener opened the gates for three Chicago runs.

Jerry Adair clouted two doubles and Whitey Herzog slammed a two-run triple to help Chuck Estrada chalk up his 10th victory and Baltimore its 10th triumph in 13 starts against Washington. Estrada struck out 12.

Four Minnesota home runs, two by Lennie Green, helped the Twins snap a seventh-place tie with Los Angeles. Al Schroll, in relief, picked up his first victory. Earl Averill had two homers for the Angels.

Nashville - Chattanooga rainout, Atlanta edged Macon 7-6 on a ninth-inning homer by Don LeJohn and Little Rock walloped Shreveport 7-2.

Phillies End Record Loss Streak at 23

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Philadelphia Phillies snapped their modern record losing streak at 23 when they defeated the Milwaukee Braves 7-4 after losing the opener 5-2 Sunday.

Cincinnati and Los Angeles, one-two in the National League, were beaten, enabling the Reds to maintain their three-game lead. The Reds lost to St. Louis 7-4 and the Dodgers dropped an 11-8 decision to San Francisco. Chicago shut out Pittsburgh 1-0 in 11 innings.

The New York Yankees protected their three-game lead over Detroit in the American League with a 6-0, 5-2 sweep of a doubleheader at Cleveland. The Tigers kept pace by downing the Boston Red Sox twice, 6-1 and 7-6. Chicago's White Sox whipped Kansas City twice 5-3 and 7-0. Minnesota outlasted Los Angeles 9-7 and Baltimore trounced Washington 9-3. The second game between the Orioles and Senators was rained out.

Everything pointed to the Phillies matching the 24 successive losses inflicted upon the 1899 Cleveland Pipers. The futility Phils already had erased the modern National and American league marks of 19 and 20 in a row, respectively. They were playing against the circuit's hottest team.

The Braves, behind Warren Spahn, had scored their 10th victory in a row in the opener, longest winning string in the league. John Buzhardt, loser of 13 of 16 decisions, was Manager Gene Mauch's choice to do the Philly pitching.

But it didn't work. Buzhardt surprised the Braves, their 23,637 customers and possibly himself by
